The Class of 1962 Presents

"The Hornet"

Beech Grove High School

Beech Grove, Indiana

Foreword

We hope that this yearbook will help you recall many of your high school memories now and in the years to come. We have endeavored to include pictures and descriptions of all the important activities that have taken place during the year.

We would like to thank our sponsors, Mrs. Ruth Rugenstein and Mr. E. H. Fairchild, for their help and encouragement in preparing the annual for publication.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1962, sincerely dedicate this yearbook to our friend and guidance counselor, Mr. Hubert E. Nickels in recognition of his devoted service to our school and our personal welfare.

Administration

SUPT. J. EARL BALES

Mr. J. E. Bales, assumed the position of Superintendent of Beech Grove Schools July 1, 1959. He holds membership in many professional organizations and is very active civically.

Mr. O. L. Van Horn, our principal, began his career at Beech Grove High School in 1930 as a member of the faculty.

Mr. H. E. Nickels, Vice Principal, also has had much school experience. He assists the teachers in the guidance of our students.

PRINCIPAL O. L. VAN HORN

VICE PRINCIPAL H. E. NICKELS

JR. HIGH PRINCIPAL, O. S. ROBERTS

Mr. Steele Roberts efficiently performs his duties as Junior High Principal.

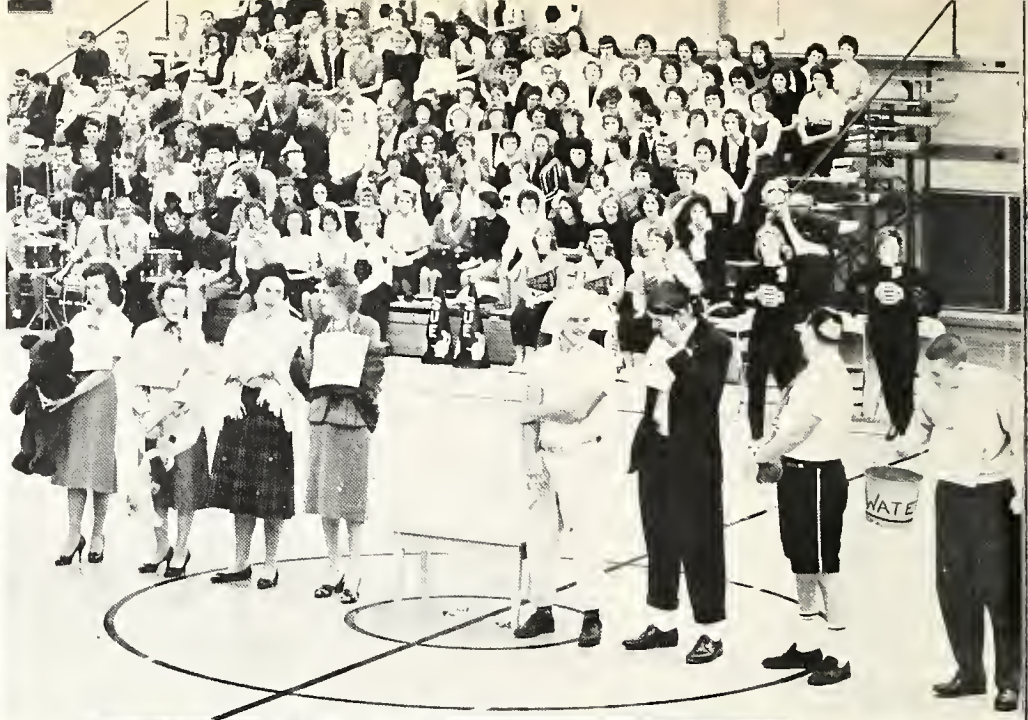

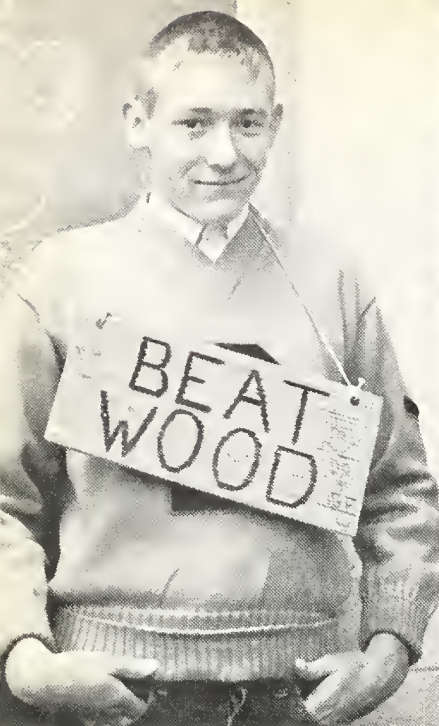

Below, our school secretaries, Miss Patty Davidson, secretary to Mr. Van Horn and manager of the bookstore, and Miss Alma Cripe, secretary to Mr. Bales and to the Board of Education, have a friendly welcome and a cheery smile for everyone.

School Can Be Fun

Members of Miss Bixler's clothing class were busy sewing at the time the picture was snapped. At the machines are Judy Brown, Mary Kay Craig, and Jennifer DeBurger.

Shorthand is a favorite subject of these senior girls in Mr. Fairchild's class. Many of these girls are preparing to go into clerical and secretarial work.

Physics is an interesting subject to this group of senior boys. It prepares them for more advanced work which they may encounter in college. Supervising the work is Mr. Rankin.

Mr. Grant is very popular with all of his students. He teaches the junior high and senior bands, the concert choir, and the mixed choir. In this photo, the concert choir is paying close attention as he brings them up and down the scale.

Members of Mr. Young's gym class would rather play games than do calisthenics, but exercise is a vital part of the physical education program.

Girls in Miss Mann's cooking classes are shown sampling results of their cooking. Students in these classes learn how to become better cooks and housewives.

Junior Hi-Lites

Getting class rings is a big moment in any junior's life. Bev Totty and Jim Hensley are shown casting admiring glances at theirs.

An annual project of the junior class is the magazine sales campaign. Prizes were awarded to the top three salesmen, shown here assisting Miss Weaver with the bookkeeping. As top salesman, Karel Van Horn (left) received a $30 cash prize. As runners-up, Mary Blazek (right) won a transistor radio, and Donna Patrick, a wrist watch.

In addition to the top salesmen prizes, special prizes were awarded to students who sold certain magazines. Here Janet Jackson is shown expressing her joy over winning three cuddly toys.

Juniors played a major role in many of the school clubs. Here they are with the foreign language group at the Spanish-Latin Club party.

College Night

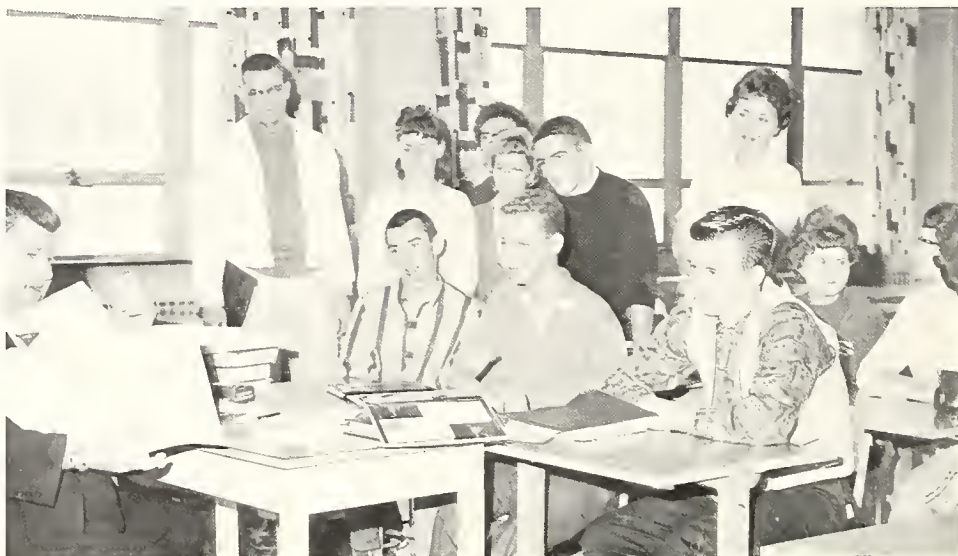

The College Night program, an important event in the school year, brings representatives from various colleges across the state to discuss college plans with Beech Grove students. Here are two representatives, one from Central Business College (at the upper left) and the other from Indiana Central College. They are shown talking to prospective college students.

Yearbook Staff

Mitchell, Linda Moore, Mr. Fairchild, sponsor. Third Row: Jan Willenberg, John Schaffer, Jim Smith, Bill Schaenbachler, Paul Haulter, Sue Albright. Members who also ably assisted but were not available for this picture were: Peggy Zavadny, Mel Marie Haboush, Nancy Clark, Shirley Turner, Nancy Toney, Teresa Walker, and Marvin Jones.

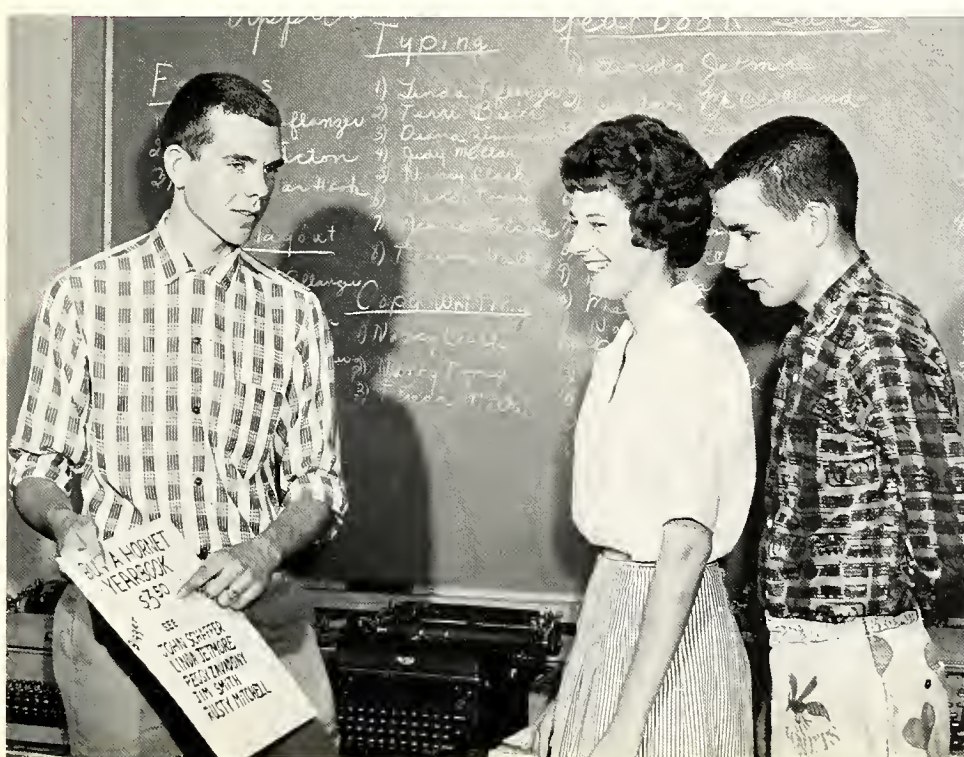

The staff took many things into consideration when choosing the cover for their yearbook. Here is Mr. Butherus of the Inter-Collegiate Press displaying sample covers to the staff.

Invaluable assistants on the staff were the typists. They were: Shirley Turner, Mary Kay Galloway, and Jan Willenberg. Also assisting were Donna Patrick, Nancy Clark, Nancy Toney, Sue Ridlen, Sue Allbright, and Teresa Walker.

Student Council

The Student Council was first organized in 1947. Its goal is "to create and maintain school spirit, and to strengthen the good relationship between faculty and students." Besides the numerous pep sessions each year, the council annually sponsors the Homecoming parade and dance, the Christmas painting contests and the cheerleader elections. This year's council succeeded in creating and stimulating a tremendous amount of school spirit within the student body. Officers were: President, Steve Agal; Vice President, Karla Faulconer; Secretary, Connie Mitchell; and Treasurer, Janet Stutler.

Mr. Cunningham and several members of the Student Council are shown designing the casket in which they "buried" the Woodchucks at one of the pep sessions.

Rusty Mitchell, Janet Stutler and Connie Mitchell view the finished product. Many felt that the spirit generated at the pep session before the Wood game helped a great deal in the upset pulled by the Hornets over the Woodchucks.

Junior Achievement

The members attended meetings each week and worked on the projects sponsored by their individual companies. The busy Beech Grove members of the Indianapolis Junior Achievement companies are Judy Wiltsee, Linda Moore, Danna Patrick, Kathryn Goss, Shirley Worrell, Linda Taylor, Jim Hensley, Bill Greenwood, John Bailey and Dan Reid.

International Correspondence

Emily Hall, Mary Kay Gallaway, Marleah Lawson, Kathleen Ross, and Sue Hahnert. Third Row: Cannie Mitchell, secretary; Danna Wright, Peggy Zavodney, Sue Helmer, treasurer; Kathy Faley, Donna Patrick, Karen Daily, Sue Lackard, and Judy Chestnut.

Girls of the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the annual Thanksgiving dinner this year, and collected canned goods for the needy. They also served refreshments in the teacher's lounges at Christmas. One of their important activities is the Model United Nations program. The Club is so popular, it has a waiting list for membership.

The Hi-Y engages in many school and social functions. They operate the hat check at Basketball games and participate in the Model U.N. Program. Pictured are, first row: Mr. Foster McMasters, sponsor; Ron Corley, James Miller, Jim Miller, Steve Murdock, Bob Milliron, Greg Summerville, Dwight Cotton, Ron Hydell, Phil Bogan. Second Row:

Beech Leaf Staff

The Beech Leaf staff published six issues of the paper this year and copies were sold for 10c each. The last edition, the Senior Edition, contained such features as the Senior's plans for the future, wills, secret ambitions, prophecies, Senior Superlatives and Do You Remember When? Pictured are, first row: Terri Bauer, Connie Acton, Barbara

Office Staff

The Office Staff Members were valuable helpers to Patty Davidson, Mr. VanHorn, Mr. Nickels, Miss Cripe, and Mr. Bales. They worked in the office during their free periods. Pictured are, first row: Mr. VanHorn, principal; Karla Faulconer, Kay Little, Kathy Foley, Diana

Foreign Language Clubs

Stephan, Jim Hensley, Rusty Mitchell, Terry Agal, Cannie Mitchell, and Janet Stutler. Third Row: Mr. Andrews, spansar; Arlene Van Hatala, Bill Case, Phil Sheltan, Jahn Hartan, Ran Tinley, Jahn Bailey, Jahn Sharkey, Ran Spivey, Steve Agal, and Joyce Shaffer.

The Spanish and Latin Clubs merged this year to create the Language Club. Membership in the Foreign Language Club is open to any student currently enrolled in a foreign language or any student who has already completed two years of one foreign language. Activities during the school year included films on Latin America, Spain, and Italy, a Christmas party with the traditional pinata, and a taco party at the end of the year.

Science Club

The Camera Club voted to change its name to Science Club this year. The club offered membership to all old Camera Club members and anyone else interested in Science. The club investigates the various phases of science and the members give reports on their particular interests. Early in the year they held the "Rank-N-Roll" dance to raise funds for their treasury. The dance was named for the club sponsor, Mr. Rankin.

The club annually takes a trip to some place of interest and value. This year they visited the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago. They left early in the morning on a chartered bus and spent the entire day in the museum. Twenty-three members and guests, with sponsor Mr. Rankin and Miss Weaver, chaperon, attended. The museum was filled with many interesting displays, one of which was the informative telephone section on the blood vessels. Here President Tinley and Vice-President Williams listen in.

Blood Vessels

The following is a list of the members of the Science Club who attended the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago. The list is arranged in alphabetical order. The members are: Sue Ridlen, Jim Hensley, Mickey Williams, Steve Agal, Rusty Mitchell, Bob Hamilton, Linda Jetmare, Phil Shelton, John Bailey, John Schaffer, Jim Smith, Ron Tinley, Jim Johnson, Terry Martin, Harry McNeely, and Mike Williams.

Sketch Club

The Sketch Club made great improvement in membership this year. Members are: Mrs. Brown, sponsor; Shirley Wilson, Sue Jaynes, Sherry Wright, Noncy Sedinger, Diane Troutt, vice-president; Judy Long, Kathy Thompson. Row Two: Jan Willenberg, president; Jimmy Goodmon, Jennifer DeBurger, treasurer; Larry Mann, Gary Bishop, LaVessa Konia, Mory Wilson, Lindo Moore, secretary; Peggy Whitaker.

The Sketch Club did much to beautify our school. They participated in the annual room decorating contest for the last four years, winning first place twice. They decorated windows on holidays, and posted pictures and paintings for open house. This year they also held a dance, called the Joker's Ball. They used the profits to buy a motor for their potter's wheel. Elected king and queen of the dance were Jim Terhune and Karla Faulconer. Larry Mann and Diane Troutt are shown crowning the couple.

History Club

Maloy, Lindo Taylor, Emily Hall, Judy Chestnut, Shirley Hunter, Mary Galloway, Gordon Hamilton, and Judy Lyzatt. Fourth Row: Cheryl Finchum, Mike Williams, Sandra Moddax, Dan Smith, Richard Dreschler, Calin Harris, David Irwin, and Bette Shaffer.

Interested in both historical and current governmental affairs, the History Club annually visits some place of historical interest. The History Club also raises funds by selling pecans. Here we see Colin Harris, president, sell a package to Jim Smith, while Shirley Turner, secretary-treasurer, and Bette Shaffer, vice-president, look on. The History Club is one of the two oldest clubs in our school.

Future Teachers Club

The Future Teachers of America group attended many interesting meetings this year. They attended one at Indiana Central College, the Regional Conference at Manual High School, and the State Conference at Muncie. Their annual trip took them to the Indiana State School for the Deaf and the new Purdue Extension building. Those seniors doing cadet teaching this year were Jim Johnson, Linda Jetmore, Terri Bauer, Linda Moore, Kay Little, Nancy Clark, Nancy Toney, Steve Jones, Gordon Fields, and Sandra Maddox.

The F.T.A. played a major role in the observance of American Education Week, November 5-12. Several members participated in a discussion panel for the P.T.O. Sandra Maddox and Nancy Clark are shown here putting final touches on a window case display.

and Rosalie Wilson. Third Row: Barbora Daily, Janice Bosma, Karen Meurer, Peggy Zavadny, vice-president; Charlene Mize, Joyce Shaffer, secretary-treasurer; Cheryl Finchum, and Bette Shaffer, president.

Beech Grove is one of the many schools around the world with a Junior Red Cross organization. The club performs worthwhile civic activities. Some of the projects were: making garments for hospital patients, making up a party box for a children's hospital, and filling an Overseas Chest with essential school supplies.

Shortly before Christmas the girls took a trip to the Marion County Juliette Home for the Aged. They gave a Christmas program on the stage at the home. Here Teresa Highland, Kay Hunt, Donna Denker, Martha Hull, and Kay Carter pack the apples which they distributed to the residents.

Honor Club

The Honor Club is one of the few clubs that limit membership only to students with high scholastic ratings. Members are, first row: Kay Hunt, Terry Highland, Ruth Schoa, Roberta Schick, Billie Salmans, Linda Amos, Mary Pelzer, and Irene McCampbell. Second Row: Linda Maore, Nancy Gearhart, Kitty Wilde, Ron Corley, Phil Bogan,

The Pep Club accompanied the teams to all the games. They raised the spirit of both the team and the fans wherever they went. Members are, first row: Miss Mann, spansar; Priscilla Hunley, president; LaVanne Kuntz, vice-president; Linda Bates, secretary; and Karel Van Harn, treasurer. Second Row: Kay Little, Nancy Taney, Mary Galloway, Emily Hall, Peggy Zavadny, Linda Moore, Connie Mitchell, and Janet Jackson. Third Row: Danna Denker, Connie Murphy, Judy Lyzatt, Kathleen Ross, Sandra Young, Judy Chestnut, Nancy Gearhart, and Sue Hunt. Fourth Row: Linda Miller, Judy Mandabach, Pam Baurff, Evelyn Knuckles, Cheryl Phillips, Cheryl Finchum, Charlene Mize and Pam Smith. Fifth Row: Elizabeth Mall, Verna Knay, Joyce Shaffer, Glaria

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders helped build and maintain school spirit throughout the entire year. The lovely varsity cheerleaders shown above are Sue Lockard, Rita Wilkins, Sue Hahnert, and Shirley Turner. Although very busy, the cheerleaders sponsored a dance in order to raise money for their treasury.

Always on hand to cheer their teams to victory were the pretty reserve cheerleaders. They are Billie Roberts, Janet Jackson, and Connie Murphy. The reserve cheerleaders conducted fund-raising activities to send both themselves and varsity cheerleaders to camp.

The Junior High games are growing in popularity. Here we see the four cute Junior High cheerleaders: Cheryll Maar, Rise Meurer, Jonice McCampbell, and Diane Smith.

The pretty freshmen cheerleaders boosted the morale of all freshmen teams. They are: Irene McCampbell, Diane Diegel, and Debbie Alfrey.

Music Department

Band Takes 8th At Fair

Beech Grove High School was proud of its high school band this year. The band took eighth place in the Indiana

State Fair Band Contest, which was quite an achievement over the thirty-second place won only three years before. The band continued to be active throughout the year, playing for all home football and basketball games and all music department concerts. They also played host for the annual Marion County Band Festival. The members marched in several parades and attended the annual band day at Indiana University. They also received first rating at the local band contest held at Indiana Central College.

Band Officers:

Jim Johnson, President

Dance Band

John Burk, leader; Dennis Clark, Bill Case, Ron Haboush, John Horton, John Shorp, Ron Cave, Andy Pryor, Ron Hydell, Don Ginsberg, and Ron Riley.

The annual Fall Concert was well attended, as were all the concerts. Mr. Grant was very popular with the audiences.

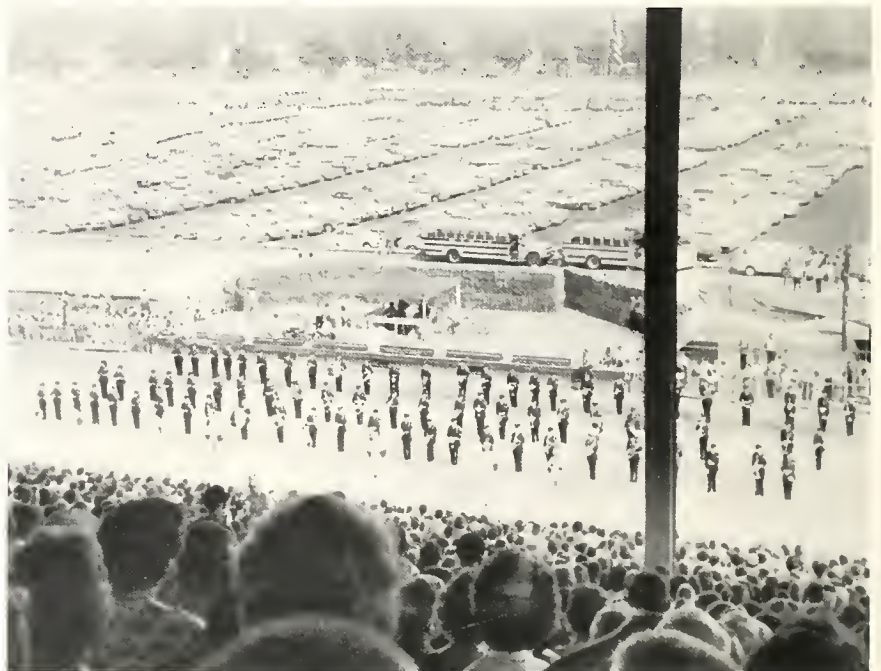

They Led The Parades

Drum Major John Horton led the band in all of its parades. He did an exceptional job in maintaining discipline and uniformity. John is the second drum major Beech Grove has had, the first being Wayne Totty. John's capability is proved by the fact that he was chosen drum major again for the upcoming year.

The majorettes added a touch of beauty to the marching band. They also presented many entertaining half-time shows at the home basketball games. They were: Lynn Paugh, Marsha Haugland, Libby Shirley, Sue Allbright, head majorette, Sharon Craig, Korel Van Horn, and Kathy Dale. Miss Julia Bredensteiner was their sponsor.

This is how the band looked from the bleachers at the State Fair Band Contest. They won eighth place with Mr. Grant's arrangement of "An American in Paris."

State Contest Winners

Choirs

Members of the Concert Choir participated in all the music department concerts, besides singing on the circle, at the choral festival, and several other events. Pictured are, first row: C. Acton, D. Walker, J. Begley, S. Turner, N. Smith, B. Pieper, L. Weaver, T. Wolker, S. Evermon, K. Faulcaner, K. Little, M. Williams, S. Worrell, J. Cassady, and B. Acton. Second Row: S. Young, T. Agal, K. Amas, S. Schultz, S. Hire, J. Yaumans, N. Toney, S. Bowling, J. Wiltsee, S. Vaughn, D.

Arnholt, S. Hahnert, P. Bagan, and L. Paugh. Third Row: J. McPhillips, M. Lawson, E. Hall, C. Larkins, S. Hunter, J. Hensley, R. Mitchell, R. Messer, G. Harris, S. Agal, B. Bentle, L. Barnhart, B. Thomas, J. Adams, M. Galloway, B. Thompson. Fourth Row: J. Chestnut, S. Neer, S. Worrell, L. Shirley, S. Lockard, E. Gatt, J. Smith, G. Starks, president, J. Robinett, R. Riley, J. Brewer, D. Homecoming

The annual Homecoming celebration, sponsored by the Student Council, was held on October 25. On the day of the big game an invigorating pep session was held in the morning and a gala parade that evening. Although the Hornets lost the game with Carmel, the colorful dance afterwards was a huge success. Jim Shelton was on hand with records, and Connie Mitchell and Jim Hensley were there to crown Jim Terhune and Sue Lockard as King and Queen. The Dance ended the Homecoming Festival for another year, but everyone agrees that there will be many more to come.

Jim Hensley and Connie Mitchell are on hand to crown King Jim Terhune and Queen Sue Lockard. They reigned over the gala Homecoming Dance after the Carmel game.

Steve Agal, president of the Student Council, makes last minute arrangements with Jim Shelton, who handled the entertainment end of the dance.

Candidates

No one envied the judges as they pondered over the question of which one of these five beautiful girls should win the Homecoming crown. The candidates were: Jan Willenberg, Kay Little, Emily Holl, Sue Lockard, and Diana VanHook.

Winning Float

The winning float, sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y, had the theme, "Carmel's Cooking." Members of the club, dressed as Hornets, "burned" Carmel in a cooking pot over a "fire" which was flaming between goal posts built on the truck.

1962 Prom

The highlight of the 1962 Junior-Senior Prom was the crowning of the King and Queen. Juniors Lavonne Kuntz and Bill Norromore place the royal crowns on King John Schaffer and Queen Emily Hall.

The King and Queen of the 1962 Prom, John Schaffer and Emily Hall, dance following the crowning ceremonies. The Prom was held at the Antlers Hotel on May 19. The decorations were in keeping with a Parisian theme and the servers were dressed in French costumes.

Candidates

Worthy candidates for Prom King and Queen were: Emily Hall, Jahn Schaffer, Sue Lackard, Gary Starks, Kay Little, Steve Janes, Karla Faulcaner, and Jim Terhune. LaVanne Kuntz and Bill Narramore crowned the royal couple, Emily Hall and Jahn Schaffer.

The servers at the Prom were selected from the freshman class. They were, first row: Kenny Narramore, Bill Rollins, Gary Leaman, Butch Mitchell, Tony Burton, Ron Carley, and Jack West. Second Row: Janice Basma, Karen Meurer, Debbie Alfrey, Paula Saunders, Sue Ackman, Kay Hunt, and Terry Highland.

Senior Play - "Who Dunit?"

Cast

"Who Dunit?", a mystery comedy in three acts, was presented on April 5 by the Senior Class. A mystery writer is murdered and goes to heaven. He is allowed to come back to earth for one day to discover his murderer. His day on earth is one filled with suspense and thrills. The play was performed with great success by these "actors": Linda Moore, Kay Little, Diane Van Hook, Kathy Foley, Marilyn Williams. Second Row: Colin Harris, Richard Meier, Jim Johnson, Jerry Erisman, Harry McNeely. Linda Jetmore and Doug Liggett were not available for this picture.

Crew

Scenes

Harry, the butler and gardener (Jim Johnson), demonstrates a murder he saw once to Alexander Arlington (Harry McNeely). Harry McNeely had the major role in the play.

Marilyn Williams makes love to her stage boy friend, Douglas Liggett. Everyone was surprised when Marilyn turned out to be the murderer, or should we say "murderess"?

Colin Harris, as the playboy nephew in the play, feels the dull blade on the knife while Marilyn Williams looks on. Colin makes a big hit with the audience.

Graduation Activities

Graduation exercises began with baccalaureate services of seniors to the stage are juniors Jonet Stutler and Phillip Shelton.

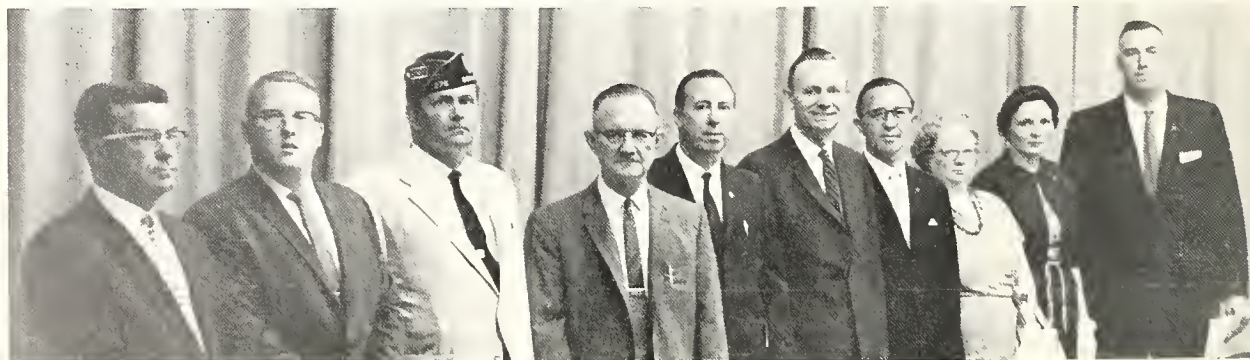

On the program were Rev. Donald Wallace, Rev. A. J. Youmans, Rev. James Haas, who gave the sermon; Mrs. Alice Hensley, PTO president, who made Bible presentation to seniors; and Principal O. L. Van Horn.

Right: John Dougherty, of the Indiana Oxygen Company, entertained seniors and parents with a demonstration of liquid oxygen at parents' reception June 4.

The coaches for the '61 grid season were Mike Leffler, freshman coach, George Fallowfield, reserve coach, and Robert Johnson, varsity coach. These men led the squad through the August heat, the happy victories, and the disappointing defeats.

After their spirited play in the season opener and a certain drill Coach Johnson devised, the team was christened the "Banzai Bandits" by Coach Leffler. Year after year coaches do a tremendous job, frequently taking inexperienced boys and molding them into a fine team. The squad holds a great amount of admiration and respect for these leaders.

Team Captain, Bob Messer, returns a Franklin Central kickoff. The one-hundred-sixty pound senior fullback ran for twelve touchdowns and seventy-six points in the nine-game season.

Against Carmel, Halfback Dan Smith turns the right end as Gary Schwameyer throws the key block on the defensive end. Smith, a junior, gained yards for a 4.6 yard-per-carry average.

Three Beech Grove seniors give a Carmel ball carrier something to remember them by in the season's last game. Making the stop are Bill Thompson, Bob Messer, and Jim Adams. Coming up fast are Dan Smith and Dan Grever.

Coach Bob Johnson's ninth squad of Hornets shut out the Greenfield Tigers in the season opener, 20-0. Bob's Bandits repeated seven days later with a bruising victory over the Hawks of Decatur Central. Again the B.G. eleven blanked their opponents 20-0. In the third game the team suffered their first defeat at the hands of arch rival Franklin Central. The squad returned to its winning ways with an 18-0 victory over the Deaf School Orioles.

The next three contests matched Johnson's crew against the top powers in the county, all undefeated. Against the Pike Red Devils, the Hornets trailed 19-0 at half time; but the Bonzai Boys then bonzaied their way through the best 24 minutes of football they had ever played and the game ended in a 26-26 tie.

The following Fridoy night Beech Grove traveled to Lawrence. The county champion Bears took it 31-6. In the mud at Speedway the Hornets lost a second squeaker to the Plugs 17-13. In their eighth game the team again failed to put together a full 48-minute effort. With one minute, eight seconds left on the clock, an eighty-yard kickoff return ruined the squad's hopes for a winning season. The score at the gun stood at 20-18. At homecoming the Hornets lost a disappointing contest to the Carmel Greyhounds.

Varsity

Reserve

Cross Country

The Hurryin' Hornets began their season with a 31-25 victory over the Greenfield Tigers on our home course. Schaffer led the team with a time of 11:47 over the rugged two miles of trail known as the "Boondocks." Beech Grove dropped the next meet with Ben Davis 18-43. In a four-way encounter with Secina, Cathedral, and Arlington, the Hornets finished third. Our distance men swept a three-way meet with Decatur Central and Speedway. Three days later the squad was edged out by Lawrence Central 27-29. Schaffer finished first with a record time of 10:26.9.

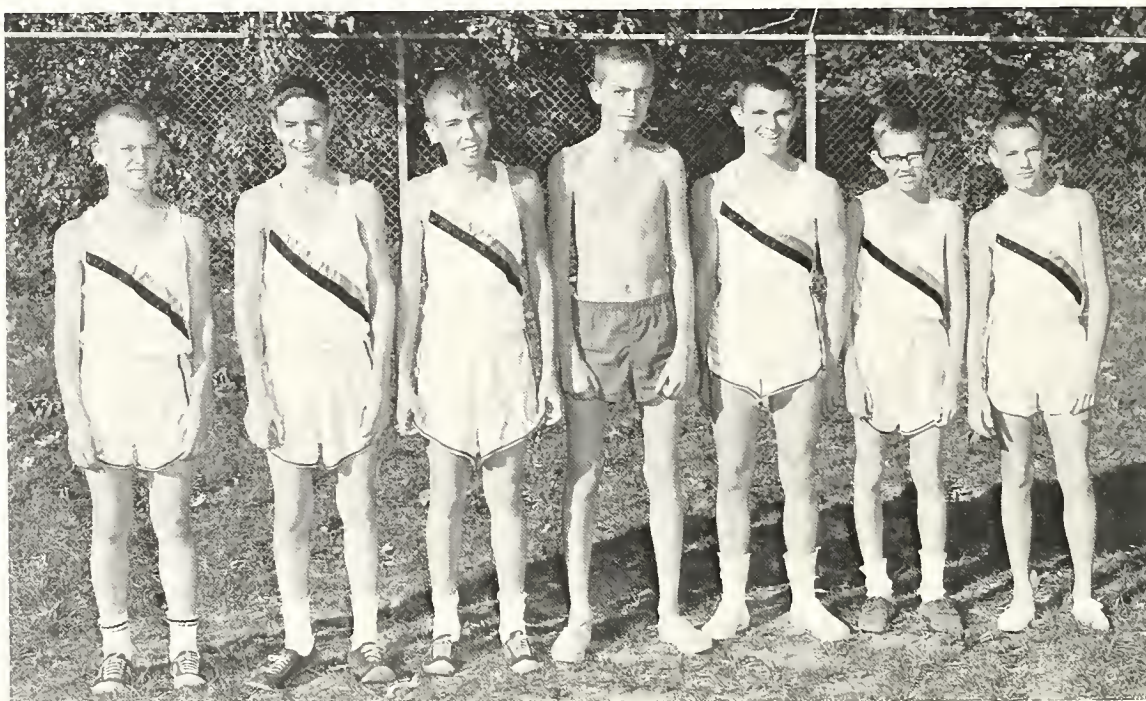

John Schaffer, the team's high scorer, displays the finishing kick which enabled him to break the school record of 10:30 with a time of 10:26.9.

In the Southport invitational Beech Grove placed third of eleven of our county's toughest teams. In the Howe invitational our runners finished ninth of fifteen. The Hornet Harriers went on to win a dual meet with Sacred Heart 36-22; topped the regular season with a victory in a triangular meet with Franklin Central, and Carmel; and once again defeated Franklin in a dual meet 41-17. The Hornets were second in the Capital District Conference meet. In the County, they were fourth of ten, and in the Sectional, twelfth of thirty. Once again Coach Boyd has put together a winning team, one with a record of five wins and three losses in the regular season.

The Hornet Harriers, in the light jerseys, are poised shoulder to shoulder with the runners of Sacred Heart. With every muscle tensed, the boys await the starter's gun that will send them on their way over the two-mile course.

Basketball Action

A few of the Hornets seem to have taken the cheer, "Down with the Flashes," literally as John Brewer, No. 50, and Mike Henson, No. 32, pile on Dave Shemwell of Franklin Central and the ball bounds away towards Roy Thomas, No. 42, left.

Roy Thomas, No. 42, springs into space for a layup only to be fouled by Boyles of Pike. At the right Henson, No. 32, awaits the rebound.

After stealing the ball from a Pike Guard, Dan Smith, No. 40, breaks away from No. 25, Etchison, and drives in for a graceful layup — another two for the Hornets.

The 1961-62 Basketball season was one of innovations and success. The team was coached by Mike Leffler, who after coming to Beech Grove from Turkey Run High School, led the Hornet cagers to their first winning season in recent years.

The Hornets started the season on a sour note by dropping their opener to Carmel 60-35. However, the team bounced right back by handing Decatur Central a 63-52 defeat.

The Hornet five continued on the victory trail with a 60-52 victory over Center Grove. It was not until the squad met a powerful team from Wood High School that the home fans realized what a fine team we had. In a photo-finish thriller Beech Grove defeated Wood 47-44. The next night the team lost to Greenfield 54-53, in a game not many fans will soon forget. The next two teams to be defeated by the Hornets were Deaf School 78-31, and Triton 68-53. The team dropped the next game to Pike 71-73.

As the season progressed, the Hornets became one of the few teams to beat Speedway. We then lost to Whiteland 53-68, defeated Lawrence Central 57-51, and Arlington 72-67.

In the county tournament the Hornets defeated Lawrence Central 57-51, and lost to Southport. The Hornets lost the next three to Sacred Heart, Hancock Central, and Greenwood. Then came the highlight of the season. Leffler's Hornets defeated previously-undefeated Franklin Central 56-55 in a double overtime. The squad then defeated Trafalgar, lost to Warren Central, and dropped the sectional opener to New Palestine.

Hornet Grapplers

The pressure of his opponent's armlock is reflected on the face of Gary Schwomeyer as he begins to work for a reverse. Gary eventually pinned the 165 pounder from Mooresville in the third period.

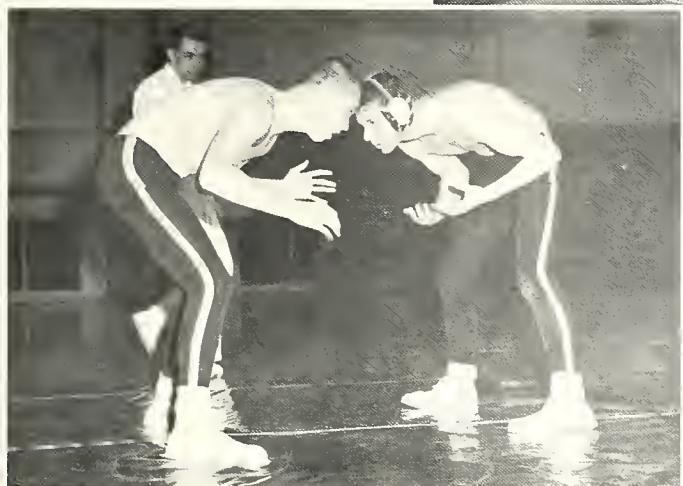

Mike Bourff methodically wears down his opponent by making him carry his weight. Mike, also, was a winner by a pin.

Ken Norramore hops aboard for a ride with a figure-four leglock. The figure-four when applied correctly is one of the most punishing holds in high school wrestling.

In the 1961-62 season Coach Thompson led the Hornet grapplers to their first winning season in recent years.

Each respecting the other's ability, the two boys circle and await an opening for the takedown. Jeff Lawson in the ear guards wrestled his opponent to a draw in the season's last match.

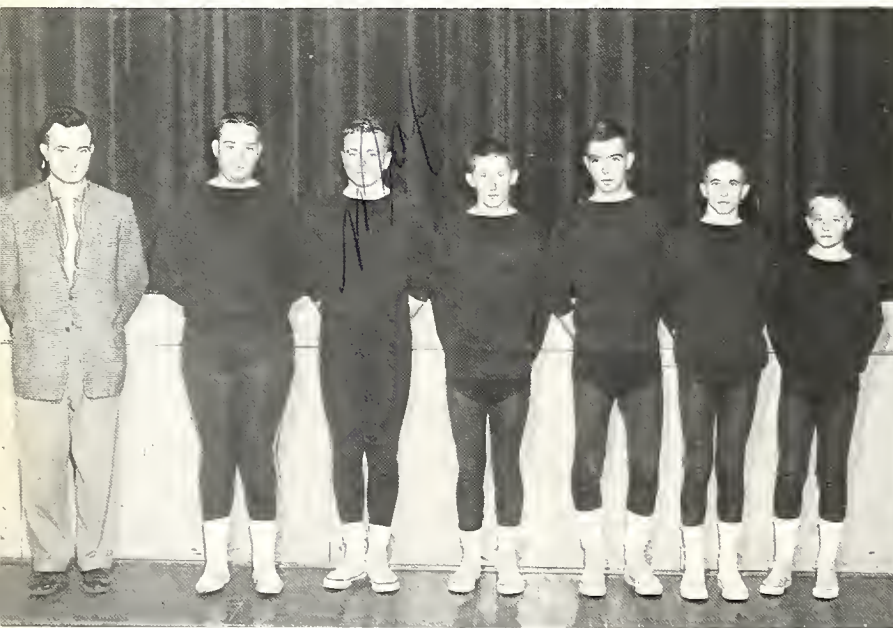

The wrestling team whoops it up in the locker-room after completing a successful season. They are about to throw an obscured manager into the showers, a tradition at Beech Grove.

Coach Thompson stands with members of the reserve wrestling team, who are: Bill Greenwood, Max Brenton, Alan Cameron, Ron Manley, John Walsh, Dennis Pieper.

In '62 the Hornet Grapplers chalked up their first winning season in recent years. The team came out of the season with an 8 - 4 record and boasting several places in the tourney matches. The team began the season by downing Greenwood 29 - 21. They dropped their next two to Franklin and Decatur Central. The Hornets bounced back to whip Hancock Central 35 - 20. They were then tripped up by Lawrence Central, beat Carmel 29 - 19, and dropped their next to Pike in a squeaker 25 - 24. Toward the season's close the Hornets ran over all their competition to finish undefeated in the last five matches. The victories included wins over Sacred Heart, the School for the Blind, Indiana School for the Deaf, Greenfield, and Mooresville. Some of the top scorers were: Mike Bourff with a 16-3-1 record; Gary Schwomeyer with a 13-5-3 record; Don Lewis with an 11-5, and Dick Irwin with a 10-6 season mark. Bourff was conference champ in his division while Gary Schwomeyer and Dick Irwin gained second places.

Track

At the right, the mile relay team of Don Grever, Charles Taylor, Bob Ashby, and Mickey Williams set a new school mark in the last meet of the season with Warren Central. The team made the four laps around the track in 3:42.2.

Below Mike Hunter and Don Grever stretch as each sails over his specialty, the high and low hurdles. Hunter chalked up a new school record in the highs with a 16.0, while Grever tied the school mark in the lows with a 21.5.

Records fell like a card house under the attack of Hornet runners. John Schaffer virtually shattered the half mile mark with a 2:06.6 jaunt at the Capital District Conference meet at Deaf School.

Charlie Taylor sails over the pole vault bar. Taylor, a freshman, vaulted 11 feet 3 inches during the season.

Gary Starks sets himself to toss the 12 pound shot as two other shotputters, Steve Jones and Roy Thomas look on.

Roy Thomas glides over the high jump bar while Woody Marschke awaits his turn.

Track

The 1962 Hornet track team chalked a successful season despite an overall season record of 4 wins and 5 losses. In all, three school records were broken or tied. Schaffer broke the half mile mark, Mike Hunter the high hurdle time, and Don Grever tied the low hurdle record. Before the actual start of the season, the team traveled to Bloomington to compete in the Hoosier Relays, competing against scores of teams from all over the state. The Hornets brought back several medals. Of ten schools Beech Grove placed fourth in the 4th annual North Central Relays. During the Capital District Conference meet at Deaf School, three school records were either broken or tied. The team's victories include wins over Sacred Heart, Deaf School, Decatur Central, and Greenwood. Throughout the season the team was hurt by injuries. In the Hoosier Relays Bob Messer, a two-year letter man in the sprints, tore a muscle and was out for the bulk of the season.

This year marked the last year for Coach Wendell Boyd. Everyone connected with track at Beech Grove knows what an asset Mr. Boyd has been, and his absence will certainly be a great void to fill.

Members of the seventh and eighth grade track team are, first row: Coach James McMoraw, Bill Gregson, Bill Callins, Phil Cave, Danny Dale, Stanley Glaver, Terry Moore, Bob Elsner, Greg Miller, Tadd Irwin, and Coach John Chastain. Beech Grove's 1962 baseball team belted their way to the conference championship. Coach Don Challis's nine gave the school its first championship since 1960. The team ended the season undefeated in the conference games. The championship was gained by victories over Carmel 14-10, Franklin Central 6-1, and Deaf School 13-0, but the deciding game was a last second thriller against Pike. A loss to the Red Devils would have meant a tie for the championship but the Hornets pulled it out of the fire with a score of 3-2. Emerson Kendall chalked up the team's highest batting average with a .412. Jim Hensley scored 15 runs, while Roy Thomas won the most games.

Ed Roessler follows through as he pulls a line drive double in the Franklin Central game. The Hornets came out on the top 6-1.

Brandum, Jim Miller, Dave Barclay, Tony Burton, Tom Bowman, Andy Pryor, Jack West, Steve Murdoch, Lee Rund, Larry Wise, and Coach LaRussa.

Janice,
 I think you are one of the nicest, sweetest girls
 I know. But why don't you say something to a certain somebody for me.
